DRY GOODS MARKETS.

BRY GOODS MARKETS.

NEW YORK, September 12.—The dry goods market showed a better general tone during the the week and the shipments of saturday were quite large. A large auction said of overalls and working shirts is scheduled for Thursday. The jobbers are to have some important sales of cottons and dross goods during the week. Linens are being ordered better, but at low prices. Burlaps are firmer. Fine cottons in some quarters are being ordered more freely.
